

DVD Number 100

Community Values are the Heart of Dorchester and Safeguards of the Future", Judge Raymond E. Beck,
2 November 2011

Judge Beck served in the United States Marine Corps, the Maryland State Senate and the House of Delegates. He is Brigadier General (ret.) Maryland National Guard and retired Circuit Court Judge in Carroll County. He continues to hear cases on the Eastern Shore. A Baltimore native, he and his wife live in Dorchester County. At the SDFM Annual Dinner Meeting, Judge Beck presented his insights on how important the teaching of the US Constitution and civic responsibility is in developing good citizenship and leadership among our youth. To an extent, the teaching of these values have declined in recent years and needs to be re-established.