Music Traditions of South Dorchester, by Bill Foxwell & The Timmons Family, 4 November 2015

Bill Foxwell and his singing groups are known throughout Lower Dorchester County for their entertaining way of presenting Country, Gospel, and Blue Grass music

Bill resides in Church Creek and leads singing groups who volunteer their talents at various churches as well as at other locations. The lower Dorchester area has had many community and church singing groups over the years, and Bill has helped continue this tradition.

So by popular demand, the South Dorchester Folk Museum presented a 2nd encore performance of their very well received November 2009 and June 2011 concerts following SDFM's Annual Meeting and dinner, Bill and the group entertained us with an assortment of songs.
