The Insley Families of Dorchester County, by Steve Abbott, 1 June 2016

Steve Abbott grew up in Toddville and he went to South Dorchester High School. He is a Vietnam veteran, having served 2 tours as a Helicopter Mechanic and Crew Chief. Steve always had interest in local history. He has worked with genealogy for more than 35 years and has extensive documentation about the families he has researched.

His talk focused on the Insley family of Dorchester County, their origin and their generations over the years. Steve's 3 great grandfather was Cain Insley on his mother's side of his family. Families related to the Insley families since they arrived here in the 1600's were Robbins, Shorter, Willey, and many others.
