The Jones Family of Dorchester County, Dennis Jones, 1 April 2015

Dennis Jones is a 1971 graduate of Cambridge High School and graduated from Salisbury State College in 1975. Since graduation, he has worked in the family business, Jones Implement Company. That family company recently became part of Atlantic Tractor Company and Dennis is the local branch manager and also the Chairman of the Board of Directors for Atlantic Tractor. He has been a guest commentator to the Banner newspaper for over 20 years.

Dennis talked about the Jones family tree and its roots in Dorchester County, and the many other families in the area that they are related to. He also spoke about other members of his family and their involvement in the community.

Dennis traced the 80 year history of the Jones Implement Company, now part of Atlantic Tractor.
