

"Webster's Grocery Store and the Webster Family", by Roger Webster, Wednesday, 7 March 2018

Roger Webster has lived in Cambridge 65 years and has spent at least 45 of those years working in his family's business, E. G. Webster & Son Grocery Store.

Roger graduated from Cambridge High School in 1970 and was very active in the Cambridge Jaycees for many years. He was co-author of the "Cambridge Past & Present Pictorial History" which sold more than 5,000 copies.

Roger related his experiences working in what is currently the oldest full-line grocery store in Dorchester County. He worked along the side of his grandfather, E. Guy Webster, and his father, Leonard Webster. The Grocery Store still has an active business on Race Street in Cambridge. Roger talked about the many changes he has seen over the years in Cambridge.
