

DVD Number 23

Proposed Railroad to Crapo Never Completed, by Claude Gootee, 4 September 2002

Claude Gootee worked most of his life as a newspaper editor in Cambridge. In that capacity, he collected and wrote various articles about Dorchester County history. In this lecture, he talks about early plans to develop railroads in Dorchester County, including the one that was never built to Crapo in the lower end of Dorchester County.